

ABOUT THE URBAN FARM

The Urban Farm (TUF) is a community farm, educational center and 501(c)(3) nonprofit.

As an outdoor classroom, living laboratory, and community space TUF works to remove the barriers to entry, such as land access, time, location, and finances, for urban residents who want to participate in and learn about agriculture.

BECOME A SPONSOR

Pollinator - $1,000 Sponsor the Learning Garden

You can support our demonstration garden where we help kids thrive with nutritious foods, healthy habits, and education about sustainable growing practices.

Homesteader - $2,500 Sponsor a Coop

You can help care for our flock of heritage breed chickens & ducks. Our coop teaches kids and the community about caring for & raising poultry.

Rancher - $5,000 Sponsor a Goat or Sheep Pen

You can help care for our sheep & goats, and educate the next generation about livestock stewardship.

Urban Farmer - $10,000 Sponsor a Horse & Stall

You can help us remove the financial barrier of horseback riding for Denver's low-income youth. You can support our 25+ partial or full scholarships for our year-round riding classes, as well as our retired horses.

TUF Legacy Member - $25,000

For individuals or organizations who want to make an immediate and long-term impact on The Urban Farm, youth served and the Denver Community at large.

OUR SUCCESSES FROM 2021:

TUF served 22,646 individuals through educational programming, tours, events and food access programs

525 children attended summer camp. 30% of campers were from low-income backgrounds and attended for free.

Over 16,000 lbs of fresh, farm raised produce, eggs and meat were donated to local food pantries and free grocery programs.

TUF provided vocational training for 86 at-risk youth involved in the juvenile justice system.

434 low-income youth were enrolled in FREE, off-site re-occurring after-school programming focused on horticulture, healthy eating & animal husbandry.

A total of 90% of field trips are provided free or at reduced-fee for Title I Schools and traditionally marginalized communities.
